

There should be no restrictions placed on XM Satellite Radio in regards to offering local content such as weather and traffic. XM is just trying to offer the best product possible to their customers.